CENTRAL LIBRARY HOSTS AUTHOR TALK ABOUT THE FALLACY OF RELIGION

Library Author Series Features Books by Local Writers and Thinkers

SAN DIEGO – The City of San Diego Public Library will host an author talk featuring San Diego author Horacio Hanson and his new book, There is no Creator: Religion is a Fraud – What Now?. The talk will be on Saturday, March 13 at 2:00 p.m. in the second floor meeting room of the Central Library, located at 820 E Street in downtown San Diego. This event is free to the public.

According to the book's back cover, There is No Creator "demonstrates the falsehood of religion by proving beyond a reasonable doubt the non-existence of a 'creator.' All but the most timid readers should be emboldened to cast off the imaginary crutches 'god' and 'soul' and break free from laws, rites and 'donations' imposed only for submission to fraudulent impostors. Current knowledge makes religion offensively ludicrous, compelling the author's use of unequivocal language and occasional humor and irony."

Exposed to the Bible only as presented by priests, author Horacio Hanson decided to read the Bible and the Koran on his own as a young adult. "Fulminated by the glaring fallacies that the juxtaposition of religious claims and scientific facts unexpectedly revealed," his book is the culmination of a fifty year effort to expose religion by way of reason. Copies of the book will be available for purchase and signing by the author.
